“LA DOLCE VITA” IS A STATE OF MIND. LIVE IT IN LUXURY AT THESE STUNNING EUROPEAN PROPERTIES.

KAYA PALAZZO RESORT & RESIDENCES LE CHIC BODRUM

The highlight of the Turkish Riviera is Bodrum, a city set so close to the Greek Islands that, indeed, said islands are as close as a mere 30 minute boat ride away. Our stay of choice in this picturesque party town is Kaya Palazzo Le Chic Bodrum, a beautiful property with its own 650-foot-long private beach that's a stone's throw away from attractions like Bodrum Castle, Bodrum Maritime Museum, and the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus. This small but mighty hotel has just 76 rooms (65 hotel rooms and 11 residence rooms), many of which are swim-up, leading directly to a heated pool, just steps away from golden sand. Breathtaking views of the Mediterranean can be found throughout, though they're arguably best from the property's private pier, which also boasts its own waterfront restaurant, Pier Bar, a stunning area to lounge and soak up the sun. [Other culinary concepts include the Palazzo Buffet, Palazzo Lounge, which features la carte dining from Develi (Turkish), Serafina (Italian), Yada Sushi, and Palazzo Steak House, as well as the Terrace Restaurant & Bar, Lounge 40 Bar, and Patisserie, among others.] There's also a steam room, Turkish bath, and sauna, as well as basketball and tennis courts for those who want to do more than simply have fun in the sun.

Asarlık Mevki, Yakamoz Sk., 48400 Bodrum/Muğla, Türkiye
